RE: Attorney Admissions

Jeffrey Lane Herring, Jr. vs. BP Exploration & Production, Inc., et al
Civil Action No. 1:19-cv-00941-LG-RHW
(Transferred from Eastern District of Louisiana, Civil Action No. 2:19-cv-11564)

Dear Attorney Nations,

Our records indicate that you are attorney of record for the above mentioned case. However, we have no record of your admission to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi in this particular case. You are allowed 30 days from the date of this letter to begin the pro hac vice admission process. If you elect not to seek pro hac vice admission, you will need to file a conventional motion to withdraw and notify your client of same.

Please see the Court's web site at www.mssd.uscourts.gov to access the Local Rules for Attorneys: Admission and Conduct, effective December 1, 2015, for the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Mississippi. Local Rule 83.1(a) provides the regulations for a general admission to practice in this court, assuming you are a member of the Mississippi Bar.

Local Rule 83.1(d) provides the regulations for a non-resident attorney to obtain a pro hac vice admission to practice in this court. To apply for admission by pro hac vice in a particular case, you would need to file an application (Form 6—found at the end of the Local Rules), along with the appropriate documentation regarding your qualifications to practice in this court for this particular case. It is a requirement for PHV admission that you associate an attorney in the above mentioned case, who is a member of the bar of this court. The original application form (which serves as the motion) and proper documentation would be filed electronically by the resident attorney with the clerk's office, along with the admission fee of $100.00, which should be paid simultaneously when the motion is filed. If paying by check rather than paying on line, please indicate on your check, PHV Fee and the case number for which you are applying for admission. You will need to forward a proposed order to the magistrate judge handling the case. Any documents which you would need to file in this particular case may be filed by your local counsel while awaiting your admission process to be completed.

The Uniform Local Rules of the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Mississippi and other relevant information, such as telephone numbers for district judges and magistrates, may also be accessed from the court's internet web site at (www.mssd.uscourts.gov).

If we can provide additional information in this regard, please let us know.

Yours very truly,

Katherine Alexander
